Jung and the Spirit of Our Times

A Jungian and Astrological Perspective the Current Zeitgeist

A three part lecture and workshop by astrologer Martin Comtois

Saturday, November 7, 2020 10:00 am to 3:30 pm

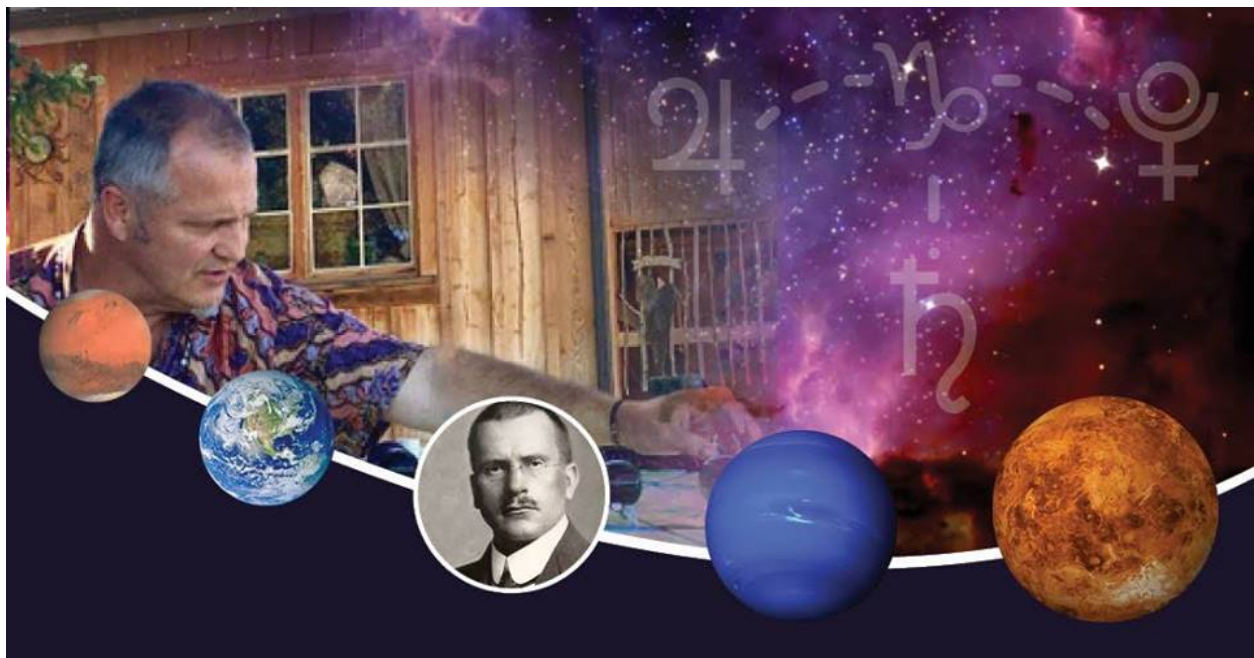

The Church of Truth, 111 Superior Street, Victoria

10:00 am to 11.30 am

Astrology, Alchemy and the Analytical Psychology of Carl Gustav Jung:

an introduction to the basic concepts of astrology and alchemy and their place in the development of Jung's work. Jung became interested in astrology early in his career and it paralleled his work and studies through out his life. In his Collected Works there are astrological passages and commentaries indicative of his insights into these ancient arts. Not until later in life, when he began extensive studies and commentaries into alchemy, did astrology take its place in his work on psychology and bridge the ancient relationship of these two sister disciplines.

The Astrological Mandala, the Planetary Archetypes and Individuation

12:00 pm to 1:30 pm

A Jungian Analysis of Astrology

Using his astro-mandala table, Martin will demonstrate the sacred geometry that informs the Zodiac with the equivalent Jungian principles. He will then introduce the planetary archetypes and their alchemical role in the process of healing and transformation. A chart analysis will be used in the context of analytical psychology to bring complexes to light for individual analysands. Astrology was a tool Jung used to map out the psyche and its inherent conflicts thus reuniting the two halves of the personality in the process of individuation.

2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

The Spirit of the Age:

a Jungian Perspective on the Astrology of the Times

Jung was one of the first to speak of the age of Aquarius in his essays and lectures. In Volume 10 of the Collected Works, "Civilization in Transition," he explains the shift in the archetypal dominants that occur at the change of a platonic month or age accounting for the difficulties that arise in times of great turmoil. We will examine the current crisis through the lens of this great axial change in search of an archetypal understanding of The Spirit of Our Times.

Martin Comtois, a passionate student of mysticism, began his astrological studies in the late 1980s. Making in-depth studies into Jung's work, he began astrological counselling 12 years ago when his practice was dramatically influenced by the Mysterium Coniunctionis and Jung's other alchemical works. These sources would later influence his work on The Healer and the Dreamer: Astrology for a New Age. Martin combines Jungian dream analysis with the use of astrology to help his clients reconcile their individual natures and thus find clarity in these complex times.
